Tasting of Mexican wines Chateau Camou Reds

Chateau Camou, Viñas de Camou 1996 El Gran Vino Tinto

This wine won a silver medal at Vinexpo in France... and it's easy to see why! A Bordeaux-style blend of cabernet sauvignon, cabernet franc and merlot, this one's got floral aromas accented with berries, vanilla, coffee and cassis. Translation: Yum! Much lighter in style than many hair-on-the-tongue-inducing Bordeaux wines. Fruity and smooth. Best of the bunch.

Chateau Camou, Flor de Guadalupe 1996 Zinfandel

This old-vine zinfandel smells like ripe red berries. Delicious zin with loads of intense fruit. Aromatic, smooth and alive with strawberry and raspberry flavors. Aged in oak, but not overly woody. Uno mas, por favor!

Chateau Camou, Cabernet Merlot

This harmonious blend of our cabernet franc & merlot, made according to the bordelaise tradition of "saint emilion" give us as result this magnificent wine. Ruby-red in color, floral and red ripe fruit aromas with touches of cassis, coffee, leather and spices.

Chateau Camou, Zinfandel

Blend of Zinfandel, Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc. Traditional fermentation with a long maceration for the Cabernet and short for the Zinfandel. Natural malolactic fermentation for all wines and barrel fermentation in French barrels for 10 months. A full bodied wine with harmonic, deep red in color purple brightness. Red fruit oak and spice aroma. Good length and a tanning silky finish.

Chateau Camou, Clarete

It is a wine with young character. 100% Barrel fermented in French oak. Blending of Merlot, Cabernet Franc and Cabernet Sauvignon. Its aroma reminds us of red fruits and roses. A lasting but discreet evolution on the palate which leads to a currant finish with really smooth-tasting tannins.

Chateau Camou, Gran vino tinto Zinfandel

A full bodied wine, deep red in color with purple blue tones.
Ripe red fruit, coffee, mint & chocolate aromas.
Good length and a tannic silky finish.

Chateau Camou, Gran vino tinto Merlot

Great ruby color, floral red ripe fruit nose and oak aromas.
Great balance and backbone.
A magnificent floral , fruity and tannic persistence.
Along , elegant and velvety finish.

Chateau Camou, Cabernet Franc Merlot

This harmonious blend of our cabernet franc & merlot , made according to the bordelaise tradition of "saint emilion" give us as result this magnificent wine.
Ruby-red in color, floral and red ripe fruit aromas with touches of cassis, coffee, leather and spices.
